

RID REGION I CONFERENCE PRESENTS

The Anderson Twins Comedy Show

Sponsored in part by:
American School for the Deaf
Mount Aloysius College

Saturday, July 16, 2016 at 7:30pm

Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square
300 W Station Square Drive
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Requests for accommodations received after June 1, 2016
cannot be guaranteed.

Twins! Double the Fun!

Levi and Clay Anderson were raised in Milan, New Mexico, 80 miles west of Albuquerque. Believe it or not, they were the only deaf/hearing twins in the town; actually the ONLY twins in town! Levi is deaf; Clay is hearing.

Clay and Levi have a family show that will have you laughing out loud. Whether they're talking about real-life events or made up ones, the stuff they perform seems impossible to be true. But someone has to do this, right? For more information and to purchase tickets, go to www.ridregioni.org/entertainment/

Tickets in advance

Adults: $15

Children (12 & under): $10

Tickets at the door

Adults: $20

Children (12 & under): $15